Fast company on hospitality solutions; Would you travel again if hotels were contact-free?

It seems hospitality solutions are going to become increasingly critical in the future.
For example, in a recent article, FAST COMPANY discusses hospitality solutions and the concepts of contactless hospitality, Apps, virtual remotes, touch-less check-in/check-out etc. in terms of delivering hospitality solutions, InnSpire's is mentioned as a partner who is currently delivering this to a multitude of premium hotels and brands globally, such as Virgin Hotels, LUX*, Intercontinental and many others.
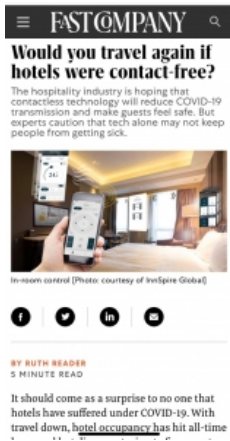

The FAST COMPANY article covers several angles and new perspectives. We think it's a great short read, and would recommend reading it if you've got a few minutes to spare;
